

The Department of Neonatology, Astrid Lindgren Children's Hospital, Stockholm, is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) to provide the following CME activity for medical specialists. The EACCME is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS), www.uems.be.

The "1st postgraduate course – Neonatal ultrasound" is designed for a maximum of 19.75 hours of European external CME credits. Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

EACCME credits are recognized by the American Medical Association (AMA) towards the Physician's Recognition Award (PRA). To convert EACCME credits to AMA PRA category 1 credit, contact the AMA.
